INSTRUCTIONS -- READ CAREFULLY

ORS 586.300, requires a bond be given by all public grain warehouses on or before the first day of July of each year. All the blank spaces should be properly filled in. Special attention is called to the following directions:

1. The correct name of the principal should be inserted. If the principal is a corporation the corporate name should be given in full. If the principal is a co-partnership the firm name, together with name of each individual member, should be stated.
2. List town, county, and state number of each warehouse to be operated.
3. The bond should be executed by the principal and sureties as follows:

If the principal is an individual his/her name should be signed exactly as it appears per instruction 1. If the principal is a co-partnership the firm name should be signed by one of its members. If the principal is a corporation, the corporate name should be signed by its president, whose signature should be attested by the secretary and the corporate seal affixed. Following the signature of the principal, the bond should be executed by the sureties. An authenticated copy of the power of attorney, or other authority of the agent or officer making the execution in behalf of the surety company, should accompany the bond unless such authority has previously been filed with the Department of Commerce, Insurance Division.

Make all remittances payable to Department of Agriculture and address all correspondence to:
